

BRIDGES

A Newsletter of New Baptist Church - October 2017

Dear West Virginia Baptist Family,

In the book of Acts, we read about how Paul and Barnabas traveled to Jerusalem after their first missionary journey. The overarching purpose for this journey to Jerusalem was to share what God was doing in the world, to jointly seek counsel with others on how to better proclaim the good news, and to encourage one another in the ministry of the gospel. The outcome of the Jerusalem council was the strengthening, expanding, and encouraging of the local congregations (see Acts 14:24-15:35).

It seems to me that if the early church felt it necessary to come together to share what God is doing in the world, to seek counsel from each other, and to encourage each other, then we should too. These are the primary purposes of the annual West Virginia State Convention. We live in a day of many troubling questions, discouraged believers, passion that has grown cold; but also at a time when God is doing remarkable things, changing lives, and growing disciples. What a privilege it is to live in such a day and to do His work where He has placed us! This is why we need the annual convention – to be reminded of God’s work, to be encouraged by His work, and to grow in wisdom with regards to doing His work.

With these purposes in mind, I invite and welcome you to New Baptist Church of Huntington West Virginia this fall for the WVBC State Convention. My prayer is that we may recognize, rejoice and celebrate what God is doing in your church; that we may listen to the various needs and concerns that you shoulder as you carry out the Lord’s work where He has placed you; that wisdom will be found to face the challenges of our day; and that when you return to your local church, through you they may be encouraged.

To Him is all glory and praise, and from Him is all grace and peace!!

Pastor Trent Eastman, D.Min

Sunday, Oct. 22 for the November issue of Bridges

Sunday, November 5
2:00am

Our NBC Children's Choir will present, The Colors of Christmas on Sunday, December 10th during the 11:00am service. We are very excited to share in song the biblical references to all the colors of Christmas.

When do we practice for our Christmas program? We will be practicing on Sunday mornings during the 11:00 service and on Wednesday night at 6:30.

The children are earning "tickets for prizes" to be awarded later in December. They earn tickets for attendance, effort, and good singing.

Our dress rehearsal for The Colors of Christmas is Saturday, December 9th at 10:00am followed by our annual Christmas Pizza Party. All children are greatly encouraged to attend this rehearsal so they will feel more confident in presenting their program.

Our children have also been very busy creating various crafts to sell at our NBC Christmas Bazaar On Saturday, November 18th. All proceeds will be given to the children of Haiti.

Please mark your calendar and reserve these dates for our children. If you have any questions, please see John or Kim Stinespring.

Senior Adult Fellowship
October 26, 2017 Meeting

Program:
Tri-State Mountain Dulcimer Society

Catering By: The Scrumptious Company

Menu: Baked ham, stewed apples, scalloped potatoes, mixed vegetables, salad & dessert.

Donations accepted to help cover the cost.

Program: Fall is right around the corner and there are several things that happen every Fall just as sure as God made little green apples. First – the weather turns a little cooler, second – Halloween happens the last day of October, third – the days are noticeably shorter than in July and fourth – The Tri-State Dulcimer Society comes to our October meeting and presents a great program for our entertainment and enjoyment. This year is no exception. All of the above will happen and you will automatically be a part of the first three happenings, but you have a choice on the fourth. We do hope you will highlight this date on your calendar and come and be a part of the meeting and enjoy some great food, fun, and fellowship. I just had a really good idea, why not invite your friends and neighbors to come with you and they can participate in the festivities also? Most of you have seen the Tri-State Mountain Dulcimer Society perform before and have laughed at their humorous stories and been carried back on the “Orange Blossom Special” to the Television Days of “Hee Haw” when Roy Clark and Buck Owens were pickin’ and grinnin’, Minnie Pearl was wearing the tag on her hat and talking about Uncle Nabob down in Grinders Switch, Junior Samples was waiting on you to call BR-549 so he could sell you a fantastic, one of a kind, used car and all the Hee Haw Beauties were.....well, they were just there, enough said. You will leave with a smile on your face, spring in your step, joy in your heart and humming the Hee Haw tunes of yesteryear. We guarantee you nothing serious will be going on here. We look forward to seeing you there. Y’all come now, ya heah!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

Note from Finance Board

All boards, committees and staff who will make budget requests for 2018 need to submit the request in writing to Darrell Walden or Pat Baisden by October 31, 2017. The finance board will meet on Saturday, November 11, to prepare a proposed church budget for 2018.

Family Fun Night

Come out to another Family Night at the Milton Corn Maze. We will start at 5pm, but you're welcome to join when you are able. We will provide food, drinks, s'mores, and then you can explore the corn maze. There are activities for all ages, come enjoy a great evening with your family and your New Baptist Church Family.

Judy's Shawls

will meet

on Monday, October 2, at 6:30pm in the Bykota classroom. We will be having a yarn exchange. Anyone who needs yarn is welcome to come and take some for whatever project you are working on. Also anyone who has extra yarn is welcome to come and share it with fellow crocheters and knitters. Hope to see you there.

Family Life Moment

When I began to consider what being a Family Life Pastor entailed, the thing that seemed to keep coming up was building bridges. As I have the opportunity of working with children, youth, college students, young adults, parents, and then all the other generations of folks that impact their lives, it is evident that the greatest need for an intergenerational community is to continually build bridges of connection from person to person and generation to generation. As Carmen and I went through pre-marital counseling, we heard that one of the greatest causes of conflict would be due to communication breakdown. We have found that to be true, and the more we are able to communicate our expectations the more connected we feel and the stronger our relationship is.

So many misunderstandings occur because we just don't understand. Parents might not understand their kids' music or technology, and kids don't understand their parents' expectations or rationale for rules. One of the biggest ways we can bridge these gaps and connect to each other better is to ask questions. I'm amazed by the questions that Jesus asked. Asking sick people if they want to get well, asking women at the tomb who they are looking for, and over and over he seems to ask his disciples if they understand. It seems by asking these questions, Jesus is able to get the heart of the needs of the people he is talking to, and in ways that they are able to relate to, he communicates how he is the fulfillment of these needs. He can heal, give living water, be the bread of life, and is the resurrection of the dead. Jesus doesn't just see people for who they are outwardly, but he looks deep into their lives and sees who they are, and then he meets them there and calls them to himself.

The longing of most of our hearts is to belong, to be seen, and to have a purpose. Jesus offers us hope of these things being fulfilled through relationship with him, but he also provides the Church, a community of people who are part of his body, empowered by his Spirit to share in these tasks. October is a big month for New Baptist Church. On October 5, families can gather at the Milton Corn Maze for fellowship, food and fun at 5pm. October 12, the youth team is feeding Huntington High School's football team, October 14, there is apple butter being made at the church and at the Booth farm, October 19-20 we have the chance to offer hospitality to the WVBC and host the Annual Convention. October 28, we welcome our neighbors to join us for the Fall Festival, and then November 5, as Huntington hosts the Marshall Marathon, we invite runners and spectators to join us for worship. Each of these are chances to meet each other, meet our neighbors, and guests in a way that connects us to one another, to the body of Christ, and seeks to care for our neighbor. I invite you to seek ways to connect with new people, maybe while you're at church, at work, or in your neighborhood. Look for ways to connect, ask questions, seek to see and hear so that the Spirit in us allows us to be the witnesses to Christ's work here, there, and everywhere.

The Greatest Story Ever Told, a Christmas musical will be performed by the New Baptist Choir on the morning of December 17. We are currently working on it but it is NOT too late to join us in rehearsals and the final performance. We have books, listening CDs as well as CDs focusing on the part you will be singing. Practices will begin at 4:47pm every Sunday evening and end in time to help with Awanas. Please see Karen Dailey if you are interested in joining us. We are more than happy to welcome you as we worship and celebrate "The Greatest Story Ever Told!"

Appreciate — and act (from The Newsletternewsletter)

October is Pastor (or Clergy) Appreciation Month, reminding church members to thank their hardworking ministry leaders. But the people in the pews — though they might lack official church titles — also play important roles in doing God's work.

In User Friendly Churches (Regal Books), researcher George Barna compares the behavior of people in growing vs. stagnant or declining churches. Members of growing churches actively participate in the church's ministry. "They did not divorce their faith from their lifestyle; their faith was their lifestyle," Barna writes. "They took seriously the classical Reformation doctrine of the priesthood of all believers."

By contrast, laypeople in stagnant churches tend to observe rather than participate. "They perceived their role as being in the audience in the stands," Barna notes, "nodding approvingly in efforts to demonstrate religious behavior as the clergy went through their paces."

Appreciate your pastors, but then follow their example by living out your beliefs!

It Is Time to Step Up and Serve

As Christians we have been called to serve. That service enhances our spiritual growth and allows us to build relationships that impact the kingdom of God. October offers these opportunities to serve:

1. The Food Pantry - The Food Pantry at New Baptist is the only one in the East End of Huntington. That might surprise you but it is true. As other Food Pantries have closed, ours remains open every Tuesday, thus the demand on ours has increased. That increase in numbers of people being served means that our spending is increasing and our need for more volunteers is critical. In addition to serving the public we pack 50 bags of food for the weekend that are given to elementary students at Highlawn Elementary. You can help in a number of ways:

- a. Pray for the Food Pantry Volunteers and Ministry
- b. Volunteer, we need both men and women. The work starts early every Tuesday and the Pantry is open until 4:00 pm. Got Time? We can use you. For more information call the church office or speak to Joyce Mannon
- c. Give financially to the Food Pantry. We are able to leverage every dollar given to purchase more than if you gave the food item itself. We are able to purchase food from the Food Bank for 18 cents per pound. That means for every dollar you give we are able to purchase four to five dollars of food.

2. The West Virginia Baptist Convention Annual Meeting - We are hosting the Annual Meeting for our WVBC on Thursday and Friday, October 19-20. There is a need for many volunteers for this to run smoothly. Our Local Arrangements Committee is at work and needs your help. From set-up and clean-up to ushers and greeters to parking lot attendants and guides we need your help. Let's put our best foot forward and show our sisters and brothers in West Virginia just what a great church we have here at New Baptist.

3. The Fall Festival - This event is fast approaching. Saturday, October 28 will be a great day as we share the love of Jesus with our community. We expect well over 1000 people to attend and so we need your help. Bethany Cox is the point person for this event this year. See the table in the entryway of the church and sign up.

It is so easy to sit back and let someone else volunteer. Jesus did not call us to sit but rather to serve and I do not recall an age limit on that calling. Let's not wait on someone else. It is time for each of us to step up and serve.

Pastor Robin

The Guyandotte Baptist Association celebrated its 150th Anniversary at Camp Ona, September 28. Delegates Vivian Atkinson, Lois Merritt, and Sandy Pemberton attended the dinner and program. WVBC guests were Area Minister Max Hill, Interim Executive Minister Mike Stephens, and Director of Baptist Campus Ministries Rob Ely. A Sesquicentennial History of the Association and its Churches was distributed to all attendees. Histories of eleven churches currently in the Association who joined in the 1800's were included as well as six who joined in the 1900's. The only church whose history is included in the present century is New Baptist Church.

Emma Wagner's great niece, Chassidy Adkins, was Huntington High's Homecoming Queen.

The Annual Meeting of the West Virginia Baptist Convention will be meeting at Our Church! It has been five years since the Convention met in Huntington. The opening session will begin on Thursday, October 19, at 2:45 p.m. in the Sanctuary. Pastor Trent Eastman and the Honorable Steve Williams, Mayor of Huntington will welcome the delegates and visitors. Everyone in the church is invited to attend. There will be an historical vignette celebrating the 500th Anniversary of the Protestant Reformation followed by the Annual Sermon, by our own Pastor Trent. You won't want to miss that! Then Communion will be served followed by a brief business meeting.

The evening session beginning at 6:45 p.m. will feature special music by our New Baptist Choir and The West Virginians from Alderson Broaddus University. Keynote Speaker will be Dr. Jeffrey D. Jones. A reception will follow celebrating the ministry of Dr. David Carrico who retired last month.

Friday morning's session will begin at 8:30 a.m. The main feature of this session is the address from the Interim Executive Minister. Several workshops of various interests will be offered at 9:45am and 10:45am.

After lunch, more workshops will begin at 1:45pm. The afternoon session will feature for the first time in my memory an address from our General Secretary of the ABCUSA. Dr. Lee Spitzer has but recently been installed as our General Secretary. We are excited to have him with us. This will be a great opportunity to hear from our national leader.

PUZZLE

The gift of grace

God's grace is a free gift, not something we can earn on our own. How do we have this gift?

Directions: Complete the Bible verse by placing the capital letters from the gifts on the blanks below.

 _____ came _____

_____ 1:17, NIV

Answer: "For the law was given through Moses; grace and truth came through Jesus Christ." John 1:17, NIV

Sign of grace

Make this sign to hang on your wall as a daily reminder of God's amazing gift of grace.

What you need:

- White poster board
- Large wooden letters that spell GRACE
- Painter's tape
- Tempura paint
- Paper plates
- Paintbrushes
- Colored pens or markers

What you do:

1. Place the poster board on the ground (outside, if possible).
2. Put tape on the back of the letters and secure them to the board. No tape should be visible.
3. Paint and draw all over the poster board. Be creative with splatters, handprints and so on.
4. When paint is dry, remove the letters and hang up the poster.

MISSION NEWS

New Baptist Church in Mission October 2017

Thank You!!!

August Mission Dinner: Thank you for continuing to be a generous church. The Wednesday mission dinner in August collected money for Cliff's Closet (clothing and food pantry) at Huntington High.

Sunday Mission Luncheon: The mission luncheon in September collected over $600.00 for Pastor Dasnis! Thank you for your continued support for his ministry that allows Pastor Dasnis to be a full-time pastor. Being full-time allows him to be available for the congregation daily.

Upcoming Events: Mark your calendar now!

Sunday October 8 – will be our next Pastor Dasnis' Mission Luncheon. As always all donations go toward the ministry of Pastor Dasnis' in Ft. Liberte' Haiti. Fall is here so chili is on the menu! You won't want to miss this.

Due to the WV Baptist Annual Convention and Fall Festival we will not be having a Wednesday mission dinner in October.

October 13 – The medical mission team leaves for Friends of Forte Liberte' Haiti. Please be in prayer for them as they minister, serve and love the Haitians they come in contact with.

Service Updates:

Food Pantry: In August, the food pantry continued to serve our community in a mighty way. The number of families/individuals this ministry is able to serve is amazing. In August, they were able to serve 350 families, totaling 733 people made up of 230 children, 383 adults, 120 senior adults, all for a total of 10,995 meals. 200 backpacks were given to students at Highlawn Elementary School to help those students have food to eat over each weekend. In addition to food, 8 hygiene kits were distributed. They were also able to serve 34 homeless individuals. Our food pantry ministry continues to look for help every week but especially on the 3rd Tues of every month as that is the day food is delivered. If you have a truck that can help pick up the deliveries or you are willing to help unload the trucks please see Joyce Mannon for details on how to become involved.

In addition to the large food delivery on the 3rd Tuesday of each month, the food pantry is now also adding an additional box of food for 30 senior citizens each month.

Service Opportunities:

Fall Festival: We are now just 4 weeks away from our Fall Festival. Our annual Fall Festival will be held on Saturday October 28 from 12-2. Last year we were able to welcome 1500 people onto our church property. Through our decorated trunks and animated storytellers 1500 people were able to experience a walk through the Bible with different stories. Those that registered and asked for prayer have been prayed for continually over the last year. This event is a HUGE outreach opportunity for our church. We need EVERYONE to be involved.

We love handing out candy and watching the children play games and ride the hay ride, but we do this outreach to share God's story and God's love to our community. We need all hands on deck for this event to run smoothly. We are still looking for volunteers. If you are breathing, we can find the perfect fit for you. We are looking for volunteers to be storytellers for Adam and Eve, Trial and death of Jesus and Heaven. We are looking for someone to decorate a trunk for Adam and Eve, Blind man healed, Lazarus, Trial and death of Jesus and Heaven. If you can help tell a story, decorate a trunk or both please do not be shy and volunteer! We also need volunteers to facilitate the carnival games, supervise the inflatable games, be available for prayer in the prayer booth, help with food, wrap hotdogs the morning of the event and simply be a smiling face that greets people as they enjoy the day. Please consider how you can help. God has given each of us gifts that we can share with others. Please fill out a volunteer form at the table in the church entrance.

Missions Continued:

WE ESPECIALLY NEED PRAYER WARRIORS FOR THIS EVENT! Please start praying now for those that will attend the event, pray for hearts to be softened to His story, pray for our guests to experience God's love in a real way and pray for sunshine! PRAY, PRAY, PRAY and then PRAY some more.

Operation Christmas Child: OCC will be here before you know it. You will begin seeing more information about how you can become involved at the end of this month. Please start prayerfully considering making one or multiple shoeboxes for a child in another country. Not only are you allowing them to experience possibly their first present but most importantly they will also experience the gift of the Gospel. With each box, Samaritan's Purse adds educational material on the Gospel and presents the Good News to the children at the time. Each child then has the option of a 12-lesson follow up/discipleship study arranged through local churches. By providing a box you are giving the child the gift of knowing Christ as a personal Lord and Savior. Lives are changed by these boxes and ultimately the world is changed by people knowing God's love for them. Please watch the bulletin for more information.

Below is a website link to a diagram of the journey of a shoebox and how to pack a shoebox. <https://s3.amazonaws.com/static.samaritanspurse.org/occ/images/occ-printable-resources/2017/10051-occ-church-bulletin-insert-5.5x7.5.pdf>

Missionary Updates:

Drew Osenbach: Drew has begun another year serving with Cru at Marshall University. The beginning of the semester is a crazy, busy, exciting time of year. Students are finding new niches and making new friends. Cru is strategic about planning events at the beginning of the semester for this reason. So far, Drew has been busy helping with freshman move in, a mixer for freshman, karaoke game night, cosmic Frisbee and more. Marshall Cru also had their first weekly meeting where approximately 180 students got to hear the Gospel! Please be in prayer for Drew and the other Cru staff members as they follow up with students and hopefully get the opportunity to share the Gospel with them. Pray for those who hear the Gospel to begin relationships with God. God is alive and changing lives on Marshall's campus!

What a great evening for all at Ladies Night Out on September 14! Approximately 120 ladies shared in fellowship as we enjoyed a wonderful meal. The music was worshipful; the opportunities shared for service and study were relevant; the message from Christie Eastman was heartfelt; the tributes to Billie Smith were so special. We were truly shown God's everlasting love for us in so many ways! Thanks to each of you for your presence! Special gratitude for those of you who made the evening successful--it took ALL of us!

Now, fall small group Bible studies are underway. If you missed the initial meeting, please feel free to join when you can! For those of you in the Wednesday evening Entrusted class led by Paula Holley, it looks like you may be starting earlier due to the length of the videos--check with Paula. Many thanks to each of our facilitators: Lois Merritt and Suzanne Campbell on Wednesday mornings and Paula Holley, Rebecca Powers, and Katelyn Mann on Wednesday evenings. We grow in grace as we study His Word!

May God's richest blessings "fall" on you during this beautiful time of the year!

For Good. . .
